

Food Poverty:

An online discussion, training and info-sharing session for frontline service providers – both volunteers and professionals

Since the start of COVID-19 there has been a threefold increase in the number of users of community food services in Oxfordshire (GFO, 2020). 20% of adults in the UK now face some form of food insecurity (Food Foundation, 2020).

What is food poverty, how does it present, and what can you do about it? Join us for a FREE online session of discussion, information, and sharing best practice.

Choose from these dates:

10am 11th November | 2pm 13th November | 6pm 18th November
10am 20th November | 2pm 24th November | 6pm 26th November

- Discuss food poverty and how it presents in your work
- Understand the international definition and conditions of food poverty and its relevance
- Share best practice responses
- Signpost most effectively in Oxfordshire
- Get informed about national and local policy work

Open to all volunteers and professionals working with people in Oxfordshire (UK) experiencing food poverty. FREE thanks to Oxfordshire County Council, Food Power and Soccer Aid for UNICEF UK.

To book a place: fptraining2020.eventbrite.co.uk

You will need access to a computer and internet, and ideally a webcam.

The session lasts two hours. There is also a 30-minute video and quick quiz which you will need to complete at least 24 hours before the session. If you fill in a reflection and feedback form after the session, you will receive a certificate of completion. Questions? mail@goodfoodoxford.org
